

PONTIFICAL COUNCIL FOR CULTURE

The Way of Beauty, or Via Pulchritudinis, pathway for evangelisation and dialogue, was the theme chosen by the Pontifical Council for Culture for its 2006 Plenary Assembly. This follows in the wake of preceding assemblies in seeking to assist the Church in transmitting faith in Christ through a pastoral approach that responds to the challenges of contemporary culture, notably religious indifference and unbelief.

The meeting was held in Rome at the Palazzo S. Calisto, 27-28 March 2006
